Russia's relentless stream of hate-inciting propaganda has led most Russians to believe that Ukraine is populated by "Ukrains", "Ukrains", "rightsectors", etc. A plethora of aliases removing all traces of former "brotherhood" makes it easier to hate and kill, or, if not kill, support Putin's policies and rally for the introduction of troops into Ukraine. This destiny awaits all enemies of Putin's political interests.

From Euro Maidan Press, 26 August 2014 Nazis from the Russian National Unity (RNE), a far-right radical organization, is at war in Ukraine, as the RNE's leader Alexandr Barkhashov reported on his VK page on August 13. "THE SUBDIVISIONS OF THE RUSSIAN NATIONAL UNITY ARE SOMEWHERE UNDER HORLIVKA," he captioned the photos of his group of militants. The members of the Russian National Unity are known in Russia for wearing wristbands with swastikas and using the nazi greeting. Their ideology is based on racial and national intolerance and antisemitism. The goals of this group is to wage war "for our faith, for Russians, for Novorossiia, for Russia, and against the Satanic plans of the USA, and against the Dill (i.e. Ukrainians)." Barkhashov's "Russian National Unity" also is against the "Global Jewish Plot", "Free Masonic Jewry", "The Invisible Hand of the Jewish Manipulators", etc. For full text, Link below
