Cosponsored by the Canada Institute and the Women in Public Service Project Thursday, June 15, 2017, 9:00am - 10:00am 6th Floor Auditorium The Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, Washington, DC

Ukraine's Minister of Health Ulana Suprun believes the key to combatting corruption lies in the resolution of issues plaguing the medical system. Join us for a discussion about the vital role healthcare plays in the national security of Ukraine and the sweeping package of healthcare reforms currently before the Verkhovna Rada. Minister Suprun will outline how the adoption and implementation of these measures are crucial to continue the progress set in motion by the Euromaidan. Speaker: Dr. Ulana Suprun, Minister of Health of Ukraine For additional information, link below: <https://www.google.com.ua/search?q=htt ... rceid=chrome&ie=UTF-8>
