Despite finishing second in the jury vote, Anastasiya took the top spot after winning the televoting section.

By Anthony Ko for Junior Eurovision 2017: After hosting the Eurovision Song Contest in Kyiv back in May, Ukraine's song contest team has now turned their attention fully to Junior Eurovision.

And on Friday, during its national selection, Ukraine decided that Anastasiya Bahinska will represent the country at Junior Eurovision 2017 with her entry "Ne zupyniai" (Do Not Stop). Young Anastasia seems to have taken her own advice. Last year she narrowly lost out to Sofia Rol. But rather than getting bitter she got better and returned this year to snatch the crown.
