The surge appears to be developing momentum. We expect to publish an update within a matter of hours.

By Samburaj Das for Bitcoin, April 12, 2018: Thursday's trading witnessed bitcoin price spiking upwards from under $6,900 to $8,000, a new high for April. For reasons unknown at the time of publishing, bitcoin prices were flung upwards in a frantic period which saw the world's most prominent cryptocurrency gain over 15% in value, all in a span of under 45 minutes. At press time, prices are continuing to climb amid frenzied trading to post a high of $8,039. [...]
