Oil production 1.4% down in 2012
Ukraine

Posted by:
Posted on: 2013/1/14 18:53:48

“The production of oil by the companies of NJSC Naftogaz of Ukraine was 2,203 thousand tons”

KYIV, Jan 14, 2013 (UBO) – According to the Ministry of Energy and Coal Industry of Ukraine, oil production in this country declined by 1.4% in 2012, compared with 2011, to 2,369.8 thousand tons; gas condensate production increased by 0.8% to 920.3 thousand tons, according to the Energobiznes information processing center. “The production of oil by the companies of NJSC Naftogaz of Ukraine was 2,203 thousand tons (2.1% less than in 2011), gas condensate 793.3 thousand tons (0.7%),” the report reads. In particular, PJSC Ukrnafta extracted 2,033.8 thousand tons of oil (2.2% less) and 199 thousand tons of gas condensate (3% up), Ukhrayzvydobuvannia 160.3 thousand tons of oil (1.8% less) and 531.5 thousand tons of gas condensate (0.8% more), SJSC Chornomornonaftogaz 8.9 thousand tons of oil (1.7% increase) and 62.8 thousand tons of gas condensate (6.5% less). Other oil and gas mining companies working in Ukraine produced 166.8 thousand tons of oil (up 9%) and 127.1 thousand tons of gas condensate (up 1.3%).